

Chitravina N. Ravikiran

Wednesday, September 18, 2013

As a vocalist, instrumentalist, composer, and musical innovator, Mr. N. Ravikiran is one of the most visible ambassadors of Indian music and culture today. In his interactive and arresting performances, Ravikiran shares his development of the concept of melharmony, in what the New York Times has called his "infinite capacity for micro-tonal shadings."

Two separate performances for Primary School/Lower School and Middle School/Upper School audiences and their families.

Performance Sponsors:

The Ganesan Family

Brookfield Academy

Milwaukee Ballet II

Friday, January 31, 2014

Milwaukee Ballet II will be in residence at Brookfield Academy for two thrilling performances from their Modern and Classical repertoires. Their visit will feature a talkback for students to get to know this group of inspiring young artists from around the world.

Two separate performances for Primary School/Lower School and Middle School/Upper School audiences and their families.

Performance Sponsors:

Brian and April McCarty

Photo by Jenn Mazza

The Etty Play

Friday, April 4, 2014

Adapted and Performed by Susan Stein

Directed by Austin Pendleton

Etty Hillesum's words of hope and humanity are brought to life in this one-woman show that takes audiences on a transformational journey following the young philosopher's arrest in Amsterdam to her murder at Auschwitz-Birkenau. Seen at schools and theaters around the world, this mesmerizing and thought-provoking performance explores Etty's yearnings, fears and intimate relationship with God.

Two separate performances for Middle School and Upper School audiences and their families.

Performance Sponsors:

Brian and April McCarty

Photo by Ricardo Barros